Gaudete Sunday

What is special about the Third Sunday of Advent? For much of the Church's history, this Sunday had a special name: "Gaudete" Sunday. The traditions surrounding this Sunday go back as far as the fourth or fifth century, as does the season of Advent itself. Advent, our preparation for Christmas, was originally a forty-day penitential season like Lent. In fact, since it used to begin on November 12 (just after the Memorial of St. Martin of Tours), it was called "St. Martin's Lent." "Gaudete Sunday" was the Advent counterpart to "Laetare Sunday," which marks the midpoint in Lent.

On Gaudete Sunday, the season of Advent shifts its focus. For the first two weeks of Advent, the focus can be summed up in the phrase, "The Lord is coming." But beginning with Gaudete Sunday, the summary might be, "The Lord is near." This shift is marked by a lighter mood and a heightened sense of joyous anticipation.

Liturgically, the colors lighten as well. The priest usually wears rose-colored vestments, a hue seen only on Gaudete Sunday and Laetare Sunday. On this day, we light the third candle of the Advent wreath, which is also rose-colored, or if you prefer, pink.

The word "Gaudete" is Latin for "Rejoice." In times when the focus of our anticipation is often on the negative and fearful, this celebration is a reminder that God who loves us is still in charge and that we await his coming not with fear, but with tremendous joy.

Audio Visual Volunteers are requested to run the audio/visual equipment at all Masses. If you have a good ear, are quick with a computer, and want free technical training, you would be perfect! We have 2 volunteers right now and are looking for two more!

For questions please email James at jamespoppleton@gmail.com.

Parish Office Support: Do you have some free time in the mornings? We can use your help in the parish office from 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM Sunday, Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday. Duties would include answering the phone and helping anyone who comes to the front office window. Training will be available. If you are interested, please contact us at the parish office.

Altar Linen Ministry: Thanks to the 4 new volunteers to the Linen Ministry we are closer to our desired total of 12. We would love to begin the new year with 12 so each person will only have one month each to care for the altar linens. With wine not being served there are no lipstick smudges to worry about so it makes it much easier. These days it involves just one small load each week. So please consider volunteering for this ministry. Anyone who used to be a part of this ministry are more than welcome to return. Thank you for your consideration. May the Lord Bless you and keep you and your family safe and well during the holiday season. If interested please contact Margie Geedey @ 623-210-8895 or mgeedey@cox.net

Update on Parish Directory

We have some unfortunate news from our parish directory vendor partner, Lifetouch. Lifetouch has advised that despite the best efforts of their team and amazing partnership with communities of faith across the country, the ongoing impacts caused by COVID-19 and shelter-in-place mandates have been insurmountable and Lifetouch Church Photography has closed. We are saddened by this news, but are looking forward to working with new vendors that are sure to arise after COVID-19 has loosed it's hold on our lives.

Safe Environment Updates

Volunteers, you are invited to stop by and check in with Chris Metelski, our Safe Environment Coordinator, to check your Safe Environment status, work through any issues you are experiencing with completing the online training and answer general questions. Tuesday December 15th at 6:30pm in the Parish Hall

Safe Environment Training

All volunteers need to be in compliance with the Safe Environment training requirements. Remember, parishioners who are not currently compliant, may not volunteer. Ministry heads are reminded to check with their volunteers to ensure all are compliant.

PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH*Be a light in the darkness

We have so many options in our modern world that it's easy to walk away from any organization or community that we struggle with and simply join ones that are more agreeable to us. But what if we stayed and worked to make them better instead? Saint John of the Cross did exactly that and reformed his Carmelite order, despite imprisonment for his efforts. When you feel disillusioned with institutions you love, be guided by John's writing—considered among the greatest in all of Spanish literature—about darkness leading to the light.

TODAY'S READINGS: Numbers 24:2-7, 15-17a; Matthew 21:23-27 (187).
"By what authority are you doing these things?"

Tuesday, Dec 15, 2020*ADVENT WEEKDAY*The darkness before dawn

Two days ago we celebrated Gaudete Sunday with refrains of rejoicing. Two days from now, we'll begin to pray the O Antiphons—seven days to laud the fast-approaching Messiah. What to make of this in-between time, when scripture shows Jesus chiding religious leaders and Old Testament prophets preach fire and brimstone? "The day in which we now find ourselves is still night," wrote Saint Augustine. But the promise of salvation is sure. "Keep your attention closely fixed on it, as you would on a lamp shining in a dark place until the first streaks of dawn appear."

TODAY'S READINGS: Zephaniah 3:1-2, 9-13; Matthew 21:28-32 (188).
"Tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God."

Wednesday, Dec 16, 2020*ADVENT WEEKDAY*Usher in a renewed Advent

This Advent season is so different from any other in our lifetimes, and the holidays may not allow for worship in person with our faith communities or celebrations with beloved families. For many of us, this brings sadness to these Advent days as we mourn the loss of familiar rituals. The poetic words of theologian, educator, and civil rights leader Howard Thurman remind us that the work of Christmas is to "find the lost, heal the broken, feed the hungry . . . rebuild the nations and bring peace among others." Let us pray for the grace to overcome any disappointment we feel and focus on feeding the hungry, having compassion for the broken, and rebuilding the relationships around us. In such practices, we will find Advent hope and peace.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 45:6b-8, 18, 21c-25; Luke 7:18b-23 (189).
"The poor have the good news proclaimed to them."

Thursday, Dec 17, 2020*ADVENT WEEKDAY (O WISDOM)*Heavenly sounds

Today is the first of the O Antiphons, an Advent tradition from the seventh century whereby for a week the church's evening prayer salutes the coming Messiah by different names each evening. Tonight monasteries, parishes, and ordinary Christians will sing or recite "O Sapientia" (Wisdom). Reading about the loveliness of this prayer is no substitute for hearing it. Let the ethereal sound of this ancient tradition uplift your prayer today. is "O Sapientia" sung by Dominican friars in Oxford, England.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 49:2, 8-10; Matthew 1:1-17 (193). "Thus the total number of generations from Abraham to David is fourteen generations."

Friday, Dec 18, 2020*ADVENT WEEKDAY (O SACRED LORD)*A call to rescue and restore

The calamities that piled up in 2020 point surely to the longing of today's O Antiphon. A wave of global pandemic, quarantine, massive unemployment, fires, floods, and protest for racial justice crests, resonating with the yearning for freedom. More than ever, we yearn for the Leader who will restore justice and rescue us with mighty power. And at a time when more people are exiled from their homes than ever before in human history, we commemorate Migrants Day with a plaintive call: Come, Lord Jesus to our human mess. We need you as we have throughout the centuries.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 23:5-8; Matthew 1:18-25 (194). "O sacred Lord of ancient Israel, who showed yourself to Moses in the burning bush, who gave him the holy law on Sinai mountain: come, stretch out your mighty hand to set us free."

Saturday, Dec 19, 2020*ADVENT WEEKDAY (O FLOWER OF JESSE'S STEM)*Creation is full of surprises

The image of "Jesse's Stem" in today's O Antiphon comes from the Book of Isaiah. Using the image of a tree much like we use a family tree to trace our lineage, Isaiah traces the lineage of the kings of Judah forward from Jesse, the father of King David, to the hoped-for Christ, the new king who might restore the monarchy to its former greatness. But like the birth of John the Baptist, the actual coming of the Christ would be a surprise, a new revelation of a heavenly Kingdom. Reflect on the various ways God has surprised you in your life.

TODAY'S READINGS: Judges 13:2-7, 24-25a; Luke 1:5-25 (195). "O Flower of Jesse's stem, you have been raised up as a sign for all peoples."
