SVdP Today as we celebrate Pentecost the Holy Spirit wants to make us advocates of God's presence to bring new life to others, especially those who do not know the love of God in their lives.

Thank you for your generous contributions in last week's SVdP collection, through your gifts we are able to bring the love of God to the poor by assisting families with food, utility and rent bills, etc.

This week our pantry needs spaghetti and spaghetti sauce.

"We must love our neighbor as being made in the image of God and as an object of his love." St. Vincent de Paul

PENTECOST SUNDAY:

AN INVITATION TO RECOGNIZE THE WONDERFUL WAYS GOD CONTINUES TO WORK AMONG US

We celebrate the fulfillment of the promise of Jesus that he will send the Holy Spirit- the teacher, counselor, advocate and the helper, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and strength, the spirit of knowledge and fear of God.

Today we relive the experience of the first Pentecost when the upper room in Jerusalem shook with hurricane force as the wind of God's Spirit, the fire of his power and his love descended on the Apostles, changing their lives forever.

The Apostles were cowering behind locked doors. Fear has a way of imprisoning us from the outer world and our inner world, taking away our freedom to hope, imagine, and dream. We can become comfortable working in cramped places, isolated and unattached, removed from life and contact with others.

1) The first gift of the risen Lord was peace (shalom). 2) The second gift is a mission: we are sent, as Jesus was sent by the Father. Where? To the world. "For God so loved..." (Jn 3:16-17). 3) The third gift is the Holy Spirit, given for the forgiveness of sins. The Holy Spirit is the gift of the Father and the Son given at baptism and again at confirmation. These gifts are given to the church and its members for the good of all, within the church and outside the church. Primary amongst these gifts is the gift of forgiveness.

We are also reminded of the power of the same Spirit who came upon Jesus at his Baptism and worked through him during his ministry. It is the same Spirit experienced by the Apostles at Pentecost as thousands more were baptized that day. The church was born in the presence of Christ's own mother and countless other witnesses.

Today, through the Eucharist, the Holy Spirit comes again to give a booster to innumerable modern Christians like us who have been given a chance to celebrate with the universal church. The Holy Spirit consecrates the community of believers in truth. "Consecrate them in truth" was the prayer of Jesus to the father for his followers. The truth is, God is love and he lives in us.

With this celebration we come to the end of the Easter season. Let this celebration of the solemnity rekindle in us, destroy fear and come out in the light. Just like the Apostles who had to shake off their fear and unlock the upper room in which they were hiding.

They preached boldly, spoke different languages and were able to understand each other. Unlike at the tower of Babel when men with their pride wanted to reach God by building a tower. On the way, God confused their one language into many tongues, and they were unable to understand each other.

The gospel reminds us of the principal role of the Holy Spirit. This includes, advocating, teaching and reminding us of the things we ought to know. However, for this to be possible, we must be ready to cooperate with him. The Holy Spirit can only advocate for us if we trust in him and allow him to be in charge of our case. He can only teach us if we pay attention to his counsel. He can only remind us of things we ought to know, if we humbly, and willingly say to him all the time: "Help me because I am ignorant, enlighten the eyes of my mind, O Holy Spirit."

- Have I had an experience of the Holy Spirit at work in my life as an individual or in my community?
- What do I think about the Holy Spirit, as fire, mighty wind, giver of gifts, or some other way?

Pentecost Sunday

MAY 23, 2021

Pentecost

Pentecost marks the occasion of God sending the Holy Spirit upon Jesus' disciples after his Resurrection. The book of Acts describes how the disciples were gathered together in one place on the day of Pentecost. The Jewish feast of Pentecost (Shavuot or the Feast of Weeks) was a day that commemorated the giving of the law to Moses, a day soon to be marked as well by the giving of the Holy Spirit.

On Pentecost, the Holy Spirit gave the disciples the strength to fulfill their commission to spread the Good News of Jesus. The Solemnity of Pentecost, which crowns and fulfills the Easter season, is a good time to pray for a deeper indwelling of the Holy Spirit.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

The following prayer was recited by Pope Benedict XVI in a homily on November 7, 2006. This is a prayer to the Holy Spirit.

Let us invoke him
so that he will irrigate, warm and straighten,
so that he will pervade us with the power of his sacred flame and renew the earth.

Let us pray for his with all our hearts
at this time, in these days.

Amen.

BULLETIN

Monday, May 24, 2021MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF THE CHURCH*The mother of all feasts

In 2018, Pope Francis created the new Marian memorial that the universal church celebrates today, the Monday after Pentecost. The title “Mother of the Church” was bestowed on Mary in 1964 by Pope Saint Paul VI at the closing of the Second Vatican Council. Her role as mother of the church goes back to when Jesus, on the cross, gave her and the beloved disciple to one another and to when she became the mother of Christ, whose body we are all members of. Not everyone has a mother figure to rely on—know that you can always rely on the mother of us all.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 3:9-15, 20 or Acts 1:12-14; John 19:25-34 (572A). “When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple there whom he loved, he said to his mother, ‘Woman, behold, your son.’”

Tuesday, May 25, 2021MEMORIAL OF MARY MAGDALENE DE' PAZZI, VIRGIN
A Spirit for the dry season

When Mary Magdalene de' Pazzi became a Carmelite nun in 1583, she couldn't foresee the great physical suffering from an unknown disease that would besiege her. Nor could she foresee having the same type of ecstatic religious visions—followed by years of “spiritual dryness”—as did another Carmelite saint, Teresa of Ávila. Magdalene's bout of spiritual dryness, so severe that she considered suicide, ended on Pentecost in 1590. With Pentecost 2021 so recently behind us, pray as she did: “Come, Holy Spirit . . . Come, as you descended on Mary, that the Word might become flesh and work in us through grace.”

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 35:1-12; Mark 10:28-31 (348). “Give to the Most High as he has given to you, generously.”

Wednesday, May 26, 2021MEMORIAL OF PHILIP NERI, PRIEST
Now is the time to do good

In the middle of Rome in the 16th century lived a man whose joyful nature made him something of a people magnet for both the powerful and the poor. Saint Philip Neri was a deeply spiritual man who exuded natural warmth, listened well, and in loving generosity, led others to know God. This spiritual director, priest, and confessor was known to ask, “Well, when shall we begin to do good?” It is no surprise that Neri, known as the “Apostle of Rome,” inspired followers to join him in caring for the sick and the poor. Where can you do some good today?

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 36:1, 4-5a, 10-17; Mark 10:32-45 (349). “For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve.”

Thursday, May 27, 2021MEMORIAL OF AUGUSTINE OF CANTERBURY, BISHOP Can't win them all

Augustine of Canterbury, memorialized today, is remembered as a major figure in evangelizing England. The renowned Canterbury Cathedral was built on the site of a church and monastery he built around the end of the sixth century. In spite of his stature now as “Apostle of the English,” he met with bitter disappointment, too. His efforts to bring the English bishops in line with Rome were roundly rebuffed, a disappointment he took to his death. Can you let go of your failures, knowing that, like Augustine, they do not define your life?

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 42:15-25, Mark 10:46-52 (350). “He began to cry out and say, ‘Jesus, son of David, have pity on me.’”

Friday, May 28, 2021Give a fig!

Figs are a popular fruit in the Bible, from Genesis with Eve and Adam wearing fig leaves clear through the Book of Revelation's apocalyptic falling of winter figs. Why so many figs? The fig itself is sweet and has lots of dietary fiber, calcium, and various minerals and vitamins. It is a great source of energy and flavor. Perhaps because it is so plentiful, delicious, and nutritious, the fig is also rich in symbolism for health and abundance. In the gospels, Jesus expects us to be like figs—to be “nutritious” to others and abundant in our presence and giving. Let us go forth to nurture the world!

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 44:1, 9-13; Mark 11:11-26 (351). “As they were leaving Bethany Jesus was hungry. Seeing from a distance a fig tree in leaf, he went over to see if he could find anything on it.”

Saturday, May 29, 2021MEMORIAL OF PAUL VI, POPE
A Pentecostal pope

The ecumenical movement received a much-needed boost during the papacy of Saint Pope Paul VI (1963-78). After the Second Vatican Council in the mid-1960s, Pope Paul went out of his way to promote ecumenical dialogue and partnership. When asked by a cardinal for permission to initiate a joint Catholic-Protestant translation of the Bible, Paul is said to have responded, “I am totally in favor!” He issued formal approval later that year on Pentecost Sunday, our recently celebrated feast commemorating the moment when the Holy Spirit allowed believers of all backgrounds and languages to truly understand each other. Come, Holy Spirit!

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 51:12cd-20; Mark 11:27-33 (352). “By what authority are you doing these things?”
