Domingo, Jan 16, 2022SEGUNDO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO*Tienes dones, de cualquier manera que lo veas

Todos somos buenos para algo. Pero no todos consideramos nuestros talentos y habilidades como bienes dados al Cuerpo de Cristo. Digamos que puedes coser, hacer reír a la gente, arreglar un motor, hornear un gran pastel, o equilibrar una chequera. Te preguntarás para qué sirven estas cosas en la Iglesia. El discernimiento de los dones es algo que San Pablo se tomó muy en serio en la primera comunidad. En nuestro intercambio de fe, podríamos preguntarnos cómo podrían traducirse las "obras de poder" o el conocimiento o la sanación en las necesidades modernas que tiene la iglesia. ¡No subestimes el valor sanador de un gran pastel!

LECTURAS PARA HOY: Isaías 62:1-5; 1 Corintios 12:4-11; Juan 2:1-11 (66). "A cada individuo le es dada la manifestación del Espíritu para algún beneficio."

Sunday, Jan 16, 2022SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME*You are gifted, any way you slice it

We're all good at something. But not all of us consider our talents and skills as assets given to the Body of Christ. Say you can sew, make people laugh, fix an engine, bake a great pie, or balance a mean checkbook. Of what use are these things to the church, you might ask. Discernment of gifts is something Saint Paul took very seriously in the early community. In our faith sharing, we might ask each other how "mighty deeds" or knowledge or healing might be translated into modern needs the church has. Don't underestimate the healing value of a great pie!

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 62:1-5; 1 Corinthians 12:4-11; John 2:1-11 (66). "To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit."

Monday, Jan 17, 2022Help the dream awaken

One of the many things Martin Luther King, Jr. taught Americans was that faith could—and should!—be a driving force for positive social change. He also showed that people of all faiths could put aside differences and do this work together. A Baptist minister, King met with Pope John XXIII and many other faith leaders who later together publicly lamented his death. Keep King's spirit of faith-based social action and interfaith cooperation alive—gather with Catholics and other people of God to discuss, learn, pray, plan, and act on a peaceful journey toward healing all forms of inequality.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 15:16-23; Mark 2:18-22 (311). "But the days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast on that day."

Tuesday, Jan 18, 2022Shop with a conscience

Today we note Mary Kenney O'Sullivan, who died on this day in 1943. A Catholic mother of three, she poured her considerable talents into organizing working-class women to demand the right to vote and expect justice in their workplaces. She fought for social justice even as the concept of Catholic social teaching was still being refined and formed into what it is today. O'Sullivan understood and lived out social teaching concepts of solidarity, the dignity of the human person, and the dignity of work. Can your shopping choices, voting patterns, and prayers help uplift workers who are currently mistreated?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 16:1-13; Mark 2:23-28 (312). "The sabbath was made for man, not man for the sabbath. That is why the Son of Man is lord even of the sabbath."

Wednesday, Jan 19, 2022God loves an underdog

We all tend to cheer for the underdog. We find it inspiring when the person or team least expected to win triumphs. David's victory over Goliath appeals to us for this reason. But there's more to the story. When we have an unsurmountable task before us, it is wise to let God take control. After all, God is all powerful. History is full of saints who did the unexpected because

trusted that God would supplement their weaknesses. As Saint Catherine of Siena advises: "Start being brave about everything . . . Don't look at your weakness, but realize that in Christ crucified you can do everything." Today pray for God's will to be revealed to you and trust that he will give you the strength you need.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 17:32-33, 37, 40-51; Mark 3:1-6 (313). "Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath rather than to do evil, to save life rather than to destroy it?"

Thursday, Jan 20, 2022MEMORIAL OF SEBASTIAN, MARTYR*Listen to the peoples' laments

The anguish of physical pain can be a fact of life. In medieval times many artists were fascinated by the martyrdom of Saint Sebastian and created gruesome images of it. For practicing Christianity in the third century, Sebastian was ordered to be executed by arrows. He survived this ordeal, only to later be beaten to death for his faith. Father Robin Ryan, C.P., a Passionist priest, says when he encounters people suffering in any form, he avoids explanations as so much about God and suffering is a mystery. He tries to allow those in pain to lament and share their emotion with God, often using the psalms as a starting point as they "help us to recognize that we belong to a tradition and a community of faith; we are not alone in this experience." Draw solace from the lament tradition the next time you find yourself or others in pain.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 18:6-9; 19:1-7; Mark 3:7-12 (314). "He had cured many and, as a result, those who had diseases were pressing upon him to touch him."

Friday, Jan 21, 2022MEMORIAL OF AGNES, MARTYR*I stand with Agnes

The stories of martyrs can make us feel a bit uneasy. They edify us, but they also can—and should—horrify us. Why? Because in every story, we encounter human violence, perhaps even a reflection of the violence we ourselves have suffered, committed, or ignored. While we laud fourth-century martyr Agnes of Rome for her sacred commitment to chastity, we must not overlook the fact that she was martyred for resisting a forced, unwanted relationship and inhumane treatment as mere property. Agnes' story is particularly relevant today because women continue to face the very real threat of personal as well as systemic violence. Will you stand with Agnes against gender violence in all its forms?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 24:3-21; Mark 3:13-19 (315). "You have treated me generously, while I have done you harm."

Saturday, Jan 22, 2022DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE LEGAL PROTECTION OF UNBORN CHILDREN*Cradle-to-grave Catholics

To embrace a consistent ethic of life is to not only oppose abortion but also to support and defend the dignity and right to life in all conditions and under all circumstances. The term "the Seamless Garment" was coined by the Catholic activist Eileen Egan to characterize this position, later popularized by the late Cardinal Joseph Bernardin. He said: "Those who defend the right to life of the weakest among us must be equally visible in support of the quality of life of the powerless among us: the old and the young, the hungry and the homeless, the undocumented immigrant and the unemployed worker." Learn more about the Seamless Garment ethic and take a stand today for life in all its forms!

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Samuel 1:1-4, 11-12, 19, 23-27; Mark 3:20-21 (316). "Let us see your face, Lord, and we shall be saved."

“ASANTE SANA” THANK YOU.

Asante Sana is a Swahili word used in the Eastern part of Africa meaning Thank you. Once more on behalf of myself and Fr. Felix, we will always remain grateful for the great support the parish has always accorded us as we serve you. The staff of the parish is equally grateful for your support and allowing them to serve you. We thank God for the year that was and we thank him for allowing us to face another year of Grace. I feel that these words are not enough to express what is in our hearts, but God knows what is in our hearts.

Apart from the support to the parish and to us priests, you have always gone a step ahead to support many other projects and outreach whenever we reach out to you. I want to take this opportunity on behalf of the Regional Superior of the Apostles of Jesus USA Region to thank you for the generous support towards our formation houses in Africa through the Mission Appeal that Fr. Mark Nyeko, AJ preached about late last year. This parish raised a total of $ 6,101.85. You have not only shared your financial resources but your faith, prayers and sacrifices for the good of the mission of the church which is Evangelization.

There has been disruption caused by the Covid-19 pandemic, and we have felt overwhelmed by it due our dear ones falling sick and some even eventually dying; but our faith in our God was unshaken. The Apostles of Jesus also were not spared. Within these two years we have lost more than 10 priests and the last one passed on last Sunday his name was Fr. Paul Ggagawala, AJ. He was one of those responsible for our mission here in the USA, as he was one of the first members to come to this country and he served as our Regional Superior for many years.

We remain grateful for your support and partnership with the Apostles of Jesus and we look forward to our continued cooperation over the course of this year. We wish you all a blessed new year 2022.

Fr. Benedict Onegiu AJ.
