Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is every Friday beginning at 9:00 AM and concludes at 4:00 PM.

Come visit Jesus, the Prince of Peace, the Creator of the Universe, the Merciful Savior, for just one of these Hours.

During exposition, Jesus cannot be left unattended. Adoration = ONE hour.

We have been told that Jesus has been left alone recently. To prevent this we are requesting that we have 2 people sign up for each hour. Please stop by the office if you have an hour between 9 and 4 on Fridays that you can spend visiting Jesus.

El largo camino hacia la libertad

La justicia nos sienta bien, si estamos del lado de los ángeles cuando se imparte. Lo que significa que, en la mayoría de los casos, la lucha por la justicia nos costará. Esto fue realmente cierto para Frederick Douglass (1818-95), que nació esclavo y se convirtió en el primer estadounidense negro en obtener un voto para la presidencia de los Estados Unidos. Como escribió en su discurso del 4 de julio de 1852: "Es necesario despertar la . . . conciencia de la nación . . . debe exponerse la hipocresía de la nación; y deben denunciarse sus crímenes contra Dios y el hombre". En este Día Mundial de la Justicia Social, piensa en el precio que estás dispuesto a pagar por la justicia.

LECTURAS PARA HOY: 1 Samuel 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23; 1 Corintios 15:45-49; Lucas 6:27-38 (81). "Trata a los demás como te gustaría que te trataran a ti."

Sunday, Feb 20, 2022 SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

It's a long road to freedom

Justice feels good—if we're on the side of the angels when it's meted out. Which means in most cases, the struggle for justice will cost us. This was certainly true for Frederick Douglass (1818-95), born enslaved yet becoming the first black American to gain a vote for president of the United States. As he wrote in his 1852 July Fourth speech: "The . . . conscience of the nation must be roused . . . the hypocrisy of the nation must be exposed; and its crimes against God and man must be denounced." On this World Day of Social Justice, consider the price you're willing to pay for justice.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23; 1 Corinthians 15:45-49; Luke 6:27-38 (81). "Do to others as you would have them do to you."

Monday, Feb 21, 2022 MEMORIAL OF PETER DAMIAN, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH Turn toward the good

Saint Peter Damian had two brothers—one bad, one good. The first treated him like a servant, the second had him educated, which led to Peter becoming a Benedictine monk. Humble and pious, he only reluctantly accepted when his community chose him to be their leader—and he was so good at it that some of those he directed became saints themselves. It was said of him that "his genius was to exhort and impel to the heroic, to praise striking achievements and to record edifying examples—an extraordinary force burns in all that he wrote." Like Peter, we've all encountered people who hold us down and others who lift us up. Which influence do you allow to shape you?

TODAY'S READINGS: James 3:13-18; Mark 9:14-29 (341). "Everything is possible to one who has faith."

Tuesday, Feb 22, 2022 FEAST OF THE CHAIR OF PETER THE APOSTLE

Please be seated

The topic of papal infallibility relates to today's feast. A pope only makes infallible statements of faith when he speaks ex cathedra—Latin for "from the chair." Cathedra, from which we also get the word "cathedral," refers to a bishop's throne, a visual symbol of authority and governance harkening back to monarchical times. It's symbolic of a bishop being the seat of government for a particular locality. In this case, the pope is actually bishop of Rome, as Saint Peter was . . . and the Roman Catholic Church recognizes Rome's bishop as having authority over all the rest. Pray for Peter's successor today.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Peter 5:1-4; Matthew 16:13-19 (535). "And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church."

Wednesday, Feb 23, 2022 MEMORIAL OF POLYCARP, BISHOP, MARTYR

Make our mark

Saint Polycarp was born around the year 69, and it is said he was a direct student of Saint John, the evangelist, and may have compiled, edited, and published many of the texts now found in the New Testament. He helped advance recognition of Paul as an apostle and the now common practice of biblical interpretation. He suffered a martyr's death by proclaiming a higher authority than the Roman emperor. His dying prayer included the words: "Lord God Almighty, I bless you, for having made me worthy of this day and hour." Let the breadth and strength of Polycarp's faith be an inspiration as you strive to trust in the Lord during challenging times.

TODAY'S READINGS: James 4:13-17; Mark 9:38-40 (343). "There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me."

Thursday, Feb 24, 2022 Take a step toward wholeness

Today's gospel refers three times to Gehenna. Typically, Gehenna is interpreted as another term for hell. Who is in hell? Can we go to hell after we die? These questions have puzzled believers and scripture scholars for centuries, and the living cannot answer them from direct experience. The church teaches in the catechism that "this state of definitive self-exclusion from communion with God and the blessed is called 'hell.'" We know what separates us from God, and we know what unites us with God. Take a step today, no matter how small, to unite yourself with God.

TODAY'S READINGS: James 5:1-6; Mark 9:41-50 (344). "Salt is good, but if salt becomes insipid, with what will you restore its flavor? Keep salt in yourselves."

Friday, Feb 25, 2022 When together forever is causing real harm

Sometimes relationships don't work out. In the case of marriage, the Catholic Church urges reconciliation and offers pastoral help. But sometimes even reconciliation is impossible, especially when harm is present. That is why the church encourages people not to enter into marriage lightly, or any life commitment for that matter. The tools of discernment, prayer, spiritual reading, and seeking wise counsel can help you as you determine your best path. If you or a loved one need more information about beginning or ending a marriage or other life vocation, seek out the church's help.

TODAY'S READINGS: James 5:9-12; Mark 10:1-12 (345). "The Lord is compassionate and merciful."

Saturday, Feb 26, 2022 Learn some childish ways

The question of how children were viewed and treated in biblical times is a complicated one, but it seems safe to say they were often not extended the full rights and protections we assume for them today. The fact that Jesus treats them as fully formed persons, in fact as possessing qualities of innocence and trust that are essential for a full embrace of his saving message, would have struck his followers as remarkable. But Jesus has a way of turning our expectations upside down. What can you learn from the little persons in your own life?

TODAY'S READINGS: James 5:13-20; Mark 10:13-16 (346). "Whoever does not accept the Kingdom of God like a child will not enter it."

Why I Love St. James Parish

There are many good reasons for attending a good Catholic parish and one of those reasons is the power of a prayerful community . St. James is that prayerful community! There are so many opportunities everyday to join in prayer with good people, who love God and take the sufferings, joys, works, and intentions of their families, friends , neighbors and fellow parishioners to the foot of the cross. Miracles happen, friends regain health, children find jobs, relationships are reconciled, conversions happen, as a result of those prayers offered for others.

Everyday, St. James has an 8:00 AM Mass including Saturdays, (Wednesday Mass is at 7:00 PM to accommodate the parents of the Religious Education children). If one comes at 7:40 AM they can join in praying the Angelus followed by the Morning Offering and then Morning Prayer, which is one of the hours of the Divine Office, filled with praise of God. One of our parishioners made copies of the Morning Prayer for each day of the year, so it is easy to join in the beautiful recitation of the official prayer of the Church. After Morning Prayer, prayers for Vocations and for Life are recited. After Mass, The prayer to St. Michael, The Rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet are recited for the many intentions mentioned. Every Friday, the Mass is immediately followed by the beginning of Benediction and after the Rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet, the rest of the Day provides an opportunity for silent Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament until the late afternoon, when the completion of Benediction and blessing, end the day.

With the Covid Pandemic, many people retreated to their homes for safety and have stayed there, hoping to avoid exposure to a virus. The Church, however, needs you! Our prayer groups before and after Mass are getting older and smaller, as members age and face medical issues, our Altar Servers are older than Father and have health issues. Instead of praying at home, alone, please come and join us in prayers. Jesus said, " Where two or three are gathered together in prayer, I am there with you." Do not be afraid, Jesus is present in the Blessed Sacrament, He is our savior.

The power of the Catholic Church has never come from money, or gold, or the brightest leaders, or the strongest bodies, or the most eloquent speakers but rather from faithfully trusting in the Way, which is Christ, Himself, His One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church, and through humble prayer and service. So please come and increase the power of God among us by joining in prayer, worship, and fellowship with your Brothers and Sisters in Christ at St. James.

February 2022 Home Lessons

Monthly Rundown

Our Home Lessons this month have the common theme of the role of the Church in our lives. In the Catechism of the Catholic Church we read that because we receive the life of faith through the Church, she is our mother and because she is our mother, she is also our teacher. (See CCC 169.) What a beautiful image of this most amazing gift! Thank You, Jesus, that we are not left on our own, but that You give us every gift we need to worship, to learn, and to interact with one another in ways that are pleasing to You!
