QUINTO DOMINGO DE CUARESMA/ TERCER ESCRUTINIO DE LOS ELEGIDOS

Pausa y renovación

Nos apresuramos a pasar las horas tachando cosas de la lista de pendientes: trabajo y tareas, recados y comidas, y mucho más. El Sabbath semanal fue diseñado como una pausa en la enloquecedora carrera de los logros. Hacer una pausa nos evita cometer errores nacidos de la falta de reflexión. En una ocasión, Jesús pidió a los ancianos religiosos que hicieran una pausa y consideraran sus propios errores antes de apedrear a una mujer por los suyos. El padre Edward Hayes (1931-2016) creó una casa de oración en Kansas como lugar de reflexión espiritual. Haz una pausa y reza con Hayes: "Que el trabajo de mis manos sea parte de la redención del mundo y de su eterna liberación primaveral."

LECTURAS PARA HOY: Año C: Isaías 43:16-21; Filipenses 3:8-14; Juan 8:1-11 (36). "Que aquel de entre ustedes que esté libre de pecado sea el primero en arrojarle una piedra."

Sunday, Apr 03, 2022

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT/ THIRD SCRUTINY OF THE ELECT

Pause and refresh

We rush through the hours checking items off a to-do list: work and chores, errands and meals, and more. The weekly Sabbath was designed as a pause from the maddening race of accomplishment. Pausing keeps us from making mistakes born of thoughtlessness. Jesus once asked religious elders to pause and consider their own errors before stoning a woman for hers. Father Edward Hayes (1931-2016) started a house of prayer in Kansas as a place of spiritual recollection. Pause and pray with Hayes: "May the work of my hands be part of the redemption of the world and its eternal springtime liberation."

TODAY'S READINGS: Year C: Isaiah 43:16-21; Philippians 3:8-14; John 8:1-11 (36). "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her."

MEMORIAL OF ISIDORE OF SEVILLE, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

The original Wikipedia

Why would Pope John Paul II name a Spanish bishop who lived 1,400 years ago the patron saint of the internet? Because Saint Isidore of Seville was the equivalent of the internet in his day. A "walking encyclopedia" you might call him. He, in fact, wrote an encyclopedia, which was used as a textbook for 900 years, as well as a dictionary and a history of the world. And like the World Wide Web, he spread information everywhere he could—founding schools and requiring seminaries in every diocese. Knowledge is power—pass it on!

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 13:1-9, 15-17, 19-30, 33-62; John 8:12-20 (251). "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness but will have the light of life."

Tuesday, Apr 05, 2022

MEMORIAL OF VINCENT FERRER, PRIEST

Charity is good medicine

Vincent Ferrer brought healing to a suffering church and world in the early 1400s. The Dominican-order priest used his massive popularity to end a three-way power struggle over the church's legitimate pope. People loved Vincent, not just for his preaching but for thousands of miracles attributed to him—right as Europe was ravaged by war, plague, and famine. "If you truly want to help the soul of your neighbor," Vincent preached, "you should approach God first with all your heart. Ask him simply to fill you with charity, the greatest of all virtues; with it you can accomplish what you desire."

TODAY'S READINGS: Numbers 21:4-9; John 8:21-30 (252). "The people came to Moses and said, 'We have sinned in complaining against the LORD and you.'"

Wednesday, Apr 06, 2022

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Answer your call, no matter the cost

On this day in 1830, James Augustine Healy was born to Michael Healy, an Irish-Catholic immigrant, and Eliza Smith, a mixed-race African-American enslaved person, in central Georgia. Raised as a free person, James was sent to the North for school and later decided to pursue the priesthood. Though most of his peers likely did not know he was black—and James did not announce it—he became the earliest-known African American to be ordained in the Catholic Church, following seminary in Canada and Europe. He also became the first black bishop and ordinary in the United States when he was named to the Diocese of Portland (Maine) in 1875. He was named a bishop-assistant to the papal throne two months before his death in the year 1900 and remains an example to all of faithful service to the church.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 3:14-20, 91-92, 95; John 8:31-42 (253). "So if the Son frees you, then you will truly be free."

Thursday, Apr 07, 2022

MEMORIAL OF JEAN-BAPTISTE DE LA SALLE, PRIEST

Be the change

In the late 1600s Frenchman Jean-Baptiste de La Salle founded the De La Salle Brothers, whose communities and schools are now worldwide. De La Salle's innovative vision emphasized the inherent dignity of the student. He believed that "not only is God so good as to have created us, but God desires all of us to come to the knowledge of the truth." Early on, de La Salle battled opponents to his reforms. He never lived to receive official approval for his congregation of teaching brothers, which came nearly six years after his death. Are you called to uplift a reform or innovation that others oppose? You have a friend in Saint Jean-Baptiste de La Salle. May he pray for us!

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 17:3-9; John 8:51-59 (254). "Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever keeps my word will never see death."

Friday, Apr 08, 2022

LENTEN WEEKDAY; DAY OF ABSTINENCE

Tap into a higher power

"The most common way people give up their power is by thinking they don't have any." That insight comes from author Alice Walker but certainly has its roots in scripture. Prophets and evangelists all spoke of the power available to each of us, if only we would access it. But we often make the mistake of looking for power in money, might, or celebrity, where we eventually find our paths blocked or our dominance fleeting. True and lasting power comes from love—love that is God. As we come to comprehend the breadth and depth of this love, Saint Paul tells us, we will be "filled with all the fullness of God" (Eph. 3:19). The ultimate renewable energy—straight from its divine source—is ours for the taking.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 20:10-13; John 10:31-42 (255). "For he has rescued the life of the poor from the power of the wicked!"

Saturday, Apr 09, 2022

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Remember those who gave all

Dietrich Bonhoeffer was executed by the Nazis on this date in 1945. He was a Lutheran pastor and theologian best known for his book The Cost of Discipleship, which has become a Christian classic. Ardent in his resistance of the Nazis, he became a target for harassment by the Gestapo. He fled to safety in the United States but soon returned "to share the trials of this time with my people." He was arrested, imprisoned, and hanged. A gallery of 20th-century martyrs in Westminster Abbey features Bonhoeffer along with Martin Luther King Jr. and Father Óscar Romero. Few of us are called to the ultimate sacrifice, but all of us are called to remember and revere those who answered that call.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 37:21-28; John 11:45-56 (256). "It is better for you that one man should die instead of the people, so that the whole nation may not perish."

March 2022 Home Lessons

Monthly Rundown

Lent is our annual reminder of the great gift of God's mercy and tender love for each one of us. No matter how far we stray (and sadly, we all do), He is not only waiting for us to return, but He gives us every possible help we need to do so. As you go through this month's lessons with your family, make sure they understand these most basic truths of God's mercy and forgiveness so that when they stray (and sadly, they will), they know the path back.
