In the first book, Theophilus, I dealt with all that Jesus did and taught until the day he was taken up, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. He presented himself alive to them by many proofs after he had suffered, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God.

While meeting with them, he enjoined them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for "the promise of the Father about which you have heard me speak; for John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit."

When they had gathered together they asked him, "Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?"

He answered them, "It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority.

But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

When he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight.

While they were looking intently at the sky as he was going, suddenly two men dressed in white garments stood beside them. They said, "Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky?"

This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven."

CALLED BY NAME TO WITNESS TO CHRIST.

Soon we will be ending a memorable and a special Easter season for the Catholic Liturgical Year with the Celebration of Pentecost Sunday a week from today. This week we come to celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. Today's feast continues the celebration of the Paschal mystery of Christ suffering, death and resurrection and return to the father.

We have in one way or the other taken a certain trip in life. It could have been near or far from family. We know the feelings that we are left with when we are separated from people we love. Consolation comes when they leave us with the smiles, hugs or words of encouragements. This is similar to the situation at the Ascension, as the Apostles kept looking up and the two men come to console them.

Today's feast is not an after thought feast about bringing down the curtain on Jesus' life and ministry on earth. It is a launching of ministry for the Apostles. Thus, the Ascension is a turning point in the history of the church. Jesus left a legacy, and it includes both mission and a promise for the future.

We celebrate the return of Jesus to the Father to intercede for us and to make possible the sending of the Holy Spirit for the continuation of God's plan of salvation for all people, taken up by the church under the direction of the same Spirit. Today's celebration challenges us to find new ways to bring the gospel into our world. A challenge no easier now than it was in the beginning.

And now how do we respond to this command of Jesus to go out and preach the Gospel to all nations? That means Jesus is instructing us to continue his work here on earth. The encounter with the Risen Lord dispelled the doubts, fears and incredulity of the Apostles. But what does it mean to be a witness? Of what importance does it mean to be a witness of Christ? Witness, from a Christian understanding, is one who bears testimony to faith especially by willingly suffering death rather than surrendering his or her religious faith.

The first word of Jesus to his disciples was come (Jn 1:39) and the last one go (Mk 16:20) no one can be commissioned by Christ to go unless you first you come. You will be my witness are the words taken from the Acts of the Apostles that reads; "but you will receive the power of the Holy Spirit which will come on you, and you will be my witness not only in Jerusalem but through out Judea and Samaria, and indeed to earths remotest ends." (Acts 1:8)

Therefore, Christianity is about spiritual war and inculcating values which will eventually bring about positive and long lasting transformation and coexistence.

LLAMADOS POR NOMBRE A TESTIMONIO DE CRISTO.

Pronto terminaremos una temporada de Pascua memorable y especial en el Año Litúrgico Católico: con la Celebración del Domingo de Pentecostés, dentro de una semana a partir de hoy. Esta semana venimos a celebrar la Ascensión del Señor. La fiesta de hoy es continuación de la celebración del misterio pascual del sufrimiento de Cristo, su muerte y resurrección y su regreso al padre.

De una forma u otra hemos hecho un cierto viaje en la vida. Podría haber estado cerca o lejos de la familia. Conocemos los sentimientos que nos quedan cuando se trata de personas que amamos y se han apartado de nuestros ojos físicos. El consuelo llega cuando nos dejan con las sonrisas, los abrazos o las palabras de aliento. Esta es una situación similar en la Ascensión cuando los Apóstoles seguían mirando hacia arriba y los dos hombres venían a consolarlos.

La fiesta de hoy no es una fiesta de última hora y no trae el telón de la vida y el ministerio de Jesús en la tierra. Es un ministerio de lanzamiento a los Apóstoles. Por lo tanto, la Ascensión es un punto de cambio en la historia de la iglesia. Jesús dejó un legado, e incluye tanto una misión como una promesa para el futuro.

Celebramos el regreso de Jesús al Padre para interceder por nosotros y hacer posible el envío del Espíritu Santo para la continuación del plan de salvación de Dios para todas las personas ahora asumidas por la iglesia bajo la dirección del mismo Espíritu. La celebración de hoy nos desafía a encontrar nuevas formas de llevar el evangelio a nuestro mundo. Un desafío no más fácil ahora de lo que fue al principio.

Y ahora, ¿cómo respondemos a este mandato de Jesús de salir y predicar el Evangelio a todas las naciones? Eso significa que Jesús nos está instruyendo a continuar su obra aquí en la tierra. El encuentro con el Resucitado disipó las dudas, los temores y la incredulidad de los Apóstoles. Pero ¿qué significa ser testigo? ¿Qué importancia tiene ser testigo de Cristo? Testigo de la comprensión cristiana es el que da testimonio de la fe, especialmente al sufrir voluntariamente la muerte en lugar de renunciar a su fe religiosa.

La primera palabra de Jesús a sus discípulos fue: ven (Jn 1,39) y la última: vete (Mc 16,20) nadie puede ser mandado por Cristo a ir si no vienes tú. Serán mis testigos son las palabras tomadas de los Hechos de los Apóstoles que dice: "pero recibirán el poder del Espíritu Santo que vendrá sobre ustedes, y serán mis testigos no sólo en Jerusalén sino en toda Judea y Samaria, y ciertamente hasta los confines más remotos de la tierra." (Hechos 1:8)

Por lo tanto, el cristianismo tiene que ver con la guerra espiritual y la inculcación de valores que finalmente producirán una transformación y coexistencia positivas y duraderas.

Monthly Rundown

Our overall focus this year has been on the amazing Word of God, and we hope your family has grown in your love of scripture in many, many ways! Whether you bought a Bible, started looking up the scripture references in some of the Home Lessons, began a time of daily reading, joined a study group, memorized the books of the Bible, or any number of other options, you have made good progress in your life with God's Word. Continuing on that path is one of the best ways to grow in Faith and we are glad for whatever way this Family Formation year has helped to launch it. We hope this has been a year of blessings for your family and look forward to working with you again in the fall.

LARGE TICKET ITEMS AND HELP ST. JAMES

Are you storing items for when rummage restarts and running out of space??? A Parishioner has graciously provided an option. She will be coordinating putting larger new or extremely gently used items on an "App" called "Offer Up." This App is an option for things like furniture, cameras, lamps, kitchen appliances that you never or barely used that you would like to donate to St James. You would need to take a picture of the item and text it to the number 623-522-9175, with a description of the item and your contact information. The parishioner will contact you, research your item and put it up for bid. All proceeds are donated to St James. Please assist her in her efforts to raise funds for St James

We need your prayers. Please prayerfully consider participating in the St. James Prayer Chain which is an informal email notification for prayer intentions. To become a participant, or "prayer partner", simply email prayerchain@stjames-greater.com. Your email address will be kept private.

Do you need prayers? Your requests for prayers can be emailed to the same address and we will include your request in our prayers. Prayers for you, loved ones, friends, etc. Please obtain permission before submitting another person.

Questions may also be sent to this email address, or leave a message at the Parish office or 623-581-0707.
