Información sobre la formación

¿Sabías que hay más de 700 institutos religiosos y sociedades de vida apostólica en funcionamiento en Estados Unidos? ¿Que las mujeres religiosas superan en número a los hombres religiosos en más de tres a uno? ¿Que casi tres cuartas partes de los que actualmente se están formando para la vida religiosa son Millennials (nacidos aproximadamente entre principios de los años 80 y finales de los 90)? ¿Que el 30 por ciento de quienes ingresan más recientemente a la vida religiosa son étnica y racialmente diversos, incluyendo Asiáticos e Isleños del Pacífico (13 por ciento), Hispanos (10 por ciento), negros (6 por ciento), y mestizos (1 por ciento)? No podemos enumerar todos los 50 datos aquí, pero para descargar tu propia lista, digna de compartir, para la Semana Nacional de Concientización Vocacional (que comienza hoy), consulta Fifty Fun Facts (Cincuenta Datos Curiosos) sobre las vocaciones en el sitio web de la National Religious Vocation Conference (Conferencia Nacional de Vocaciones Religiosas).

TRIGÉSIMO SEGUNDO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

LECTURAS PARA HOY: 2 Macabeos 7:1-2, 9-14; 2 Tesalonicenses 2:16-3:5; Lucas 20:27-38 (156). "Oren por nosotros, para que la palabra del Señor avance rápidamente y sea glorificada como lo hizo entre ustedes."

Formation information

Did you know there are more than 700 religious institutes and societies of apostolic life at work in the United States? That women religious outnumber men religious by more than three to one? That nearly three-fourths of those currently in formation for religious life are Millennials (born roughly from the early 1980s to late 1990s)? That 30 percent of newer entrants to religious life are ethnically and racially diverse, including Asian/Pacific Islander (13 percent), Hispanic (10 percent), black (6 percent), and mixed race (1 percent)? We can't list all 50 facts here, but to download your own post-able, share-worthy list for National Vocation Awareness Week (which starts today), check out Fifty Fun Facts about vocations on the National Religious Vocation Conference website.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14; 2 Thessalonians 2:16—3:5; Luke 20:27-38 (156). "Pray for us, so that the word of the Lord may speed forward and be glorified as it did among you."

Until we rest in You

National Vocation Awareness Week runs annually the first full week of November (this year, Nov. 6-12) to promote vocations to ordained ministry and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to pray and support those who are considering these vocations. Have you ever thought about a vocation to religious life? Do you know someone who could use help discerning such a vocation? Take some time this week to visit Vision Vocation Network for resources to help you discern your path, including a calendar of discernment events, a "Vocation Match" tool to find religious communities, and a treasure trove of helpful articles. This year's theme: "Pathways for a restless heart." Does that speak to you?

TODAY'S READINGS: Titus 1:1-9; Luke 17:1-6 (491). "And the Apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.'"

A day to vote your values

"When it comes to labor and politics, I am inclined to be sympathetic to the left, but when it comes to the Catholic Church, then I am far to the right." So said Dorothy Day—born this day 125 years ago—voicing the struggle many U.S. Catholics feel on Election Day. Though Day, born in 1897, was a suffragette, arrested for demanding that women get to vote, she never voted in her lifetime once women finally got the right in 1920. Her reasons were complicated. But the U.S. Catholic bishops offer guidance for all who wonder about the worth of their vote, insisting that "participation in political life is a moral obligation."

TODAY'S READINGS: Titus 2:1-8, 11-14; Luke 17:7-10 (492). "We have done what we were obliged to do."

Build your vocation steeped in love

For nearly a millennium, the Catholic Church has marked on this day the dedication of the Lateran Basilica, so named for the hill upon which it sits just east of the Colosseum in Rome. The cathedral of the Diocese of Rome, it is the official seat of the pope (the bishop of Rome) and is dedicated to both of the New Testament's two most famous Johns: the Baptist and the Apostle. At this halfway point of National Vocation Awareness Week, consider the far-reaching impact of these servants honored in the Catholic Church's highest-ranking edifice. Let's dedicate ourselves as they did to spreading the Good News of love, and through our own holy vocations attain our heavenly reward!

FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12; 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17; John 2:13-22 (671). "His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me."

Make peace with your vocation

Saint Leo the Great is one of the few popes remembered as the "Great." This accomplished preacher and writer was also such a skilled diplomat that he convinced Attila the Hun to spare Rome from attack in 452 and later kept a plundering Vandal army from burning the city. We recognize Saint Leo during National Vocation Awareness Week, a time to recall that God has called us each by name to love and serve in our own way. Saint Leo used his gifts to uplift Christ. How do you use yours? Sharing God's peace is a good place to start.

MEMORIAL OF LEO THE GREAT, POPE, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Philemon 7-20; Luke 17:20-25 (494). "For behold, the Kingdom of God is among you."

Holiness cut to fit

Humility and generosity are the key attributes associated with many saints, and fourth-century Saint Martin of Tours is no exception. While on patrol in Gaul as a soldier in the Roman Army, it is said that Martin took pity on a half-naked beggar by cutting his officer's cloak in half and sharing it with the shivering man. The incident is immortalized in Christian art and iconography throughout Europe and became a defining image of what it means to be Christian. Martin took to heart the words of Jesus: "Whatever you did for one of these least of mine, you did for me" (Matt. 25:45). In Martin's honor, extend your compassion beyond your comfort zone today.

MEMORIAL OF MARTIN OF TOURS, BISHOP

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 John 4-9; Luke 17:26-37 (495). "For this is love, that we walk according to his commandments."

Saturday, Nov 12, 2022

Seek unity where possible

For the first thousand years Christianity was one big, mostly happy family. But for a number of reasons the church was divided in the Great Schism of 1054. Saint Josaphat (c.1580-1623) was a Catholic bishop trying to reunite the Eastern Church with Rome. But, alas, he was a little heavy-handed. When he discovered a priest in his diocese was celebrating Mass according to the Byzantine practice, he had him arrested and thrown in jail. This angered a mob of unruly citizens who attacked and violently dispatched Josaphat, tossing his body in a river. We can honor his good intentions today, while perhaps choosing another approach to unity. Pray we unite in those things that matter most.

MEMORIAL OF JOSAPHAT, BISHOP, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: 3 John 5-8; Luke 18:1-8 (496). "I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily."

THANKSGIVING AT ADOBE

The girls and boys at Adobe are happily awaiting the wonderful treats from St. James as they do every year at Thanksgiving.

For those new to St. James and Adobe, every year at Thanksgiving, St. James completes the kids' Thanksgiving Dinner by providing Dessert for them.

The State no longer will accept home made or home baked items for the kids; all donations must be individually wrapped and purchased from a Bakery or Grocery Store. If possible, please tape the sales slip for the item(s) you donate to the item(s).

Please bring your donations starting Saturday the 19th of November after 2:00 PM until 12:30 on Tuesday the 22nd.

The Adobe Chaplin will pick your gifts on Tuesday, the 22nd of November at 1PM.

Rummage Clean-up Update

A HUGE thank you to all of you who stayed after the meeting last Saturday to help with clean-up! We managed to fill up that huge dumpster in about 2 or 2 ½ hours. The dumpster has now been emptied so there is room for more when we have time.

We are also still working on cleaning up the hangars, bins, crates, etc.

Joan and her team will be there Wednesdays at 8 a.m. to work on sorting.

Thanks, everyone, for all your efforts! We are making progress in getting things cleaned up and organized!

Safety Team Needs More Volunteers

The Safety Team has been working hard to keep everybody safe for almost two months now. As time goes on it has become very clear we need more volunteers. The current volunteers are working almost every weekend and they need a break.

We need at least 10 more volunteers to staff this ministry properly. Please consider volunteering. It involves working an additional hour on either Saturday evening or Sunday morning/evening. The mass you work is not the mass you attend.

The tasks are not involved you need to observe and report. Some contact with the public, saying hello, smiling or asking a few questions if the person seems out of place, and checking some doors.

If you have questions please contact Chris in the Safe Environment/Safety Team Office. Her hours are Tue/Thurs 8-12 and Sun 9-11 or by phone.

A CHANCE TO GET RID OF NEW AND GENTLY USED LARGE TICKET ITEMS AND HELP ST. JAMES

Are you storing items for when rummage restarts and running out of space??? A Parishioner has graciously provided an option. She will be coordinating putting larger new or extremely gently used items on an "App" called "Offer Up." This App is an option for things like furniture, cameras, lamps, kitchen appliances that you never or barely used that you would like to donate to St James. You would need to take a picture of the item and text it to the number 623-522-9175, with a description of the item and your contact information. The parishioner will contact you, research your item and put it up for bid. All proceeds are donated to St James. Please assist her in her efforts to raise funds for St James

Are you a Trained Medical Professional Who Could Assist in an Emergency?

In an ongoing effort to make St. James a safe and welcoming community, we have decided to compile a list of all medical folks who attend St. James.

This list will assist the security team in the event of a medical emergency.

A part of our parishioners, are getting older and we want to make sure we can assist them if they need us. As we all know accidents do happen.

Phx fire will be called if something happens, but we need to account for a response time.

So, if you wish to be on the list just stop by the office and leave your name, medical profession and the mass you normally attend. When you come Mass just let the hospitality person with the radio earpiece you are there.

Thank you for assisting in this ministry to keep everybody safe here at St. James.

En un esfuerzo continuo por hacer de St. James una comunidad segura y acogedora, hemos decidido hacer una lista de todos los médicos que asisten a St. James.

Esta lista ayudará al equipo de seguridad en caso de una emergencia médica.

Una parte de nuestros feligreses son de la tercera edad y queremos asegurarnos de poder ayudarlos si nos necesitan. Como todos sabemos, los accidentes ocurren. Si algo sucede se llamarán a los paramédicos. Pero tenemos que tener en cuenta el tiempo de respuesta.

Entonces, si desea estar en la lista, solo pase por la oficina y deje su nombre, profesión médica y la misa a la que asiste normalmente. Cuando venga a misa, dígame a la persona de hospitalidad con el auricular de la radio que está allí.

Gracias por ayudar en este apostolado para mantener a todos seguros aquí en St. James.

There will be a Safety Team and Hospitality Meeting on Nov 7, 2022 at 6:00 pm

Anybody interested joining the team is also invited. If you Join all the previous training will be provided once you join.

This meeting is very important.

There will be a training and updated procedures and protocols will be given.

There have been many questions asked by the team and answers to those questions will be provided.

Save The Date — The following is the beginning of a list of the variety of events sponsored by St. James or on St. James' Property in the next few months. Many of them need help to make them a success for St. James. Please call the office if you can volunteer for any of them, 623.581.0707. All Volunteers Please complete your Safe Environment Training. If you have any questions or problems please see Chris, she is available on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:00AM to Noon and Sunday from 9:00AM to 11:00AM.
