FOR SAFETY'S SAKE:

PLEASE ENSURE THAT SMALL CHILDREN AND YOUNG TEENS DO NOT GO TO THE RESTROOM WITHOUT AN ADULT ACCOMPANYING THEM.

Jesus came home with his disciples. Again the crowd gathered, making it impossible for them even to eat. When his relatives heard of this they set out to seize him, for they said, "He is out of his mind." The scribes who had come from Jerusalem said, "He is possessed by Beelzebul," and "By the prince of demons he drives out demons."

Summoning them, he began to speak to them in parables, "How can Satan drive out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand; that is the end of him. But no one can enter a strong man's house to plunder his property unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he can plunder the house. Amen, I say to you, all sins and all blasphemies that people utter will be forgiven them. But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an everlasting sin." For they had said, "He has an unclean spirit."

His mother and his brothers arrived. Standing outside they sent word to him and called him. A crowd seated around him told him, "Your mother and your brothers and your sisters are outside asking for you." But he said to them in reply, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking around at those seated in the circle he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Mk 3:20-35

En aquel tiempo, Jesús entró en una casa con sus discípulos y acudió tanta gente, que no los dejaban ni comer. Al enterarse sus parientes, fueron a buscarlo, pues decían que se había vuelto loco.

Los escribas que habían venido de Jerusalén, decían acerca de Jesús: "Este hombre está poseído por Satanás, príncipe de los demonios, y por eso los echa fuera".

Jesús llamó entonces a los escribas y les dijo en parábolas: "¿Cómo puede Satanás expulsar a Satanás? Porque si un reino está dividido en bandos opuestos, no puede subsistir. Una familia dividida tampoco puede subsistir. De la misma manera, si Satanás se rebela contra sí mismo y se divide, no podrá subsistir, pues ha llegado su fin. Nadie puede entrar en la casa de un hombre fuerte y llevarse sus cosas, si primero no lo ata. Sólo así podrá saquear la casa.

Yo les aseguro que a los hombres se les perdonarán todos sus pecados y todas sus blasfemias. Pero el que blasfeme contra el Espíritu Santo nunca tendrá perdón; será reo de un pecado eterno". Jesús dijo esto, porque lo acusaban de estar poseído por un espíritu inmundo.

Llegaron entonces su madre y sus parientes; se quedaron fuera y lo mandaron llamar. En torno a él estaba sentada una multitud, cuando le dijeron: "Ahí fuera están tu madre y tus hermanos, que te buscan".

Él les respondió: "¿Quién es mi madre y quiénes son mis hermanos?" Luego, mirando a los que estaban sentados a su alrededor, dijo: "Éstos son mi madre y mis hermanos. Porque el que cumple la voluntad de Dios, ése es mi hermano, mi hermana y mi madre".

Uganda Martyrs Day: Thousands Throng the Namugongo Shrine

On 3 June 2024, thousands of pilgrims from across the globe thronged the Namugongo Catholic Martyrs Shrine in Kampala, Uganda, to attend the Uganda Martyrs Day celebrations in honour of the Holy Martyrs killed between 1885 and 1887 on account of their faith.

Fr Isaac Ojok- Kampala City.

This year's pilgrims for Martyrs Day were drawn from all the 19 Catholic dioceses of Uganda, spread in the four Ecclesiastical Provinces of Gulu, Tororo, Mbarara, and Kampala Archdioceses, respectively. Some pilgrims trekked long distances and for weeks to reached the Shrine.

From the African continent, pilgrims came from countries such as Kenya, Tanzania, Zambia, Rwanda, Burundi, Nigeria, South Sudan and South Africa. Additionally, other pilgrims arrived in Uganda from countries in Europe and the Americas.

Annually, 3 June in Uganda is marked as a public holiday and the day is liturgically celebrated as a Solemnity to honour the 22 Catholic martyrs. This year's celebrations were favoured by relatively cool weather. Security was very tight and it was enforced by the police and Ugandan military.

A new way of being Christian

Nebbi Catholic Diocese in Northwestern Uganda animated the national liturgy for 2024 under the theme "But as for me and My Household, We Shall Serve the Lord," as taken from Joshua 24:15.

Archbishop Raphael p'Mony Wokorach MCCJ, the Archbishop of Gulu Archdiocese, presided over the Eucharistic celebration, which was concelebrated by many Bishops and priests.

At the start of his homily, Archbishop Wokorach thanked the Uganda Episcopal Conference for granting Nebbi Catholic Diocese the opportunity to lead this year's Martyrs Day.

He said the celebration of Martyrs Day is very meaningful to Christians in Uganda and the church at large. Celebrating the day is an acknowledgement and expression of God's goodness to the Church and to Ugandans. It is an act that refreshes our way of being Christians both in Uganda and elsewhere.

Experiencing a new Pentecost

The prelate alluded to that celebration of the Uganda Martyrs Day every year, as an experience of a new Pentecost, a point where people from all corners of the world gather together in prayers as one family of God -united in faith.

He went on to invite pilgrims to emulate the legacy of the Ugandan Martyrs who lived and exhibited a strong faith regardless of danger to their own lives. The martyrs took the Word of God seriously, and it shaped and marked their lives.

The scourge of corruption

Following the example of the Uganda Martyrs, who stood firm on solid principles of their faith, Bishop Wokorach also took time to encourage the country's leaders, policymakers, and all those in authority to learn from the courage of the martyrs and tackle the scourge of corruption in Uganda. Corruption, the Bishop said, had now penetrated most sectors of Ugandan society.

At the climax of his sermon, Archbishop Wokorach encouraged Christians to embrace the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony as one way to strengthen families and nations. For their model, families have the Holy Family of Nazareth, as an example worth emulating, the Gulu Archdiocese prelate pointed out.

He concluded by invoking God's grace upon all pilgrims and praying that the Lord would look kindly on all their intercessions.

60th anniversary of Canonisation

Nebbi Catholic Diocese last animated Martyrs Day, at Namugongo, in 2007.

This year, the Catholic Church in Uganda commemorates the 60th anniversary of Pope Paul VI's 1964 canonisation of the Ugandan Martyrs. It also commemorates 145 years of the Catholic faith in Uganda brought by the Missionaries of Africa, commonly known as the White Fathers.

Ugandan President Yoweri Kaguta Museveni was the guest of honour at this year's Martyrs Day celebrations. Other dignitaries who graced the occasion were Ugandan legislators, cultural leaders, and heads of different political parties.
